

LGAA July Meeting: July 13, 5:30 p.m., VFW Hall

In Attendance: LaTasha Duncan, Ray Grass, Stuart Horton, Shelley Horton, Roxann Yates, Shaun Perkins, Kelly Palmer, Jennifer Henson

1. Treasurer's Report: Balance, $3,967.75
 - a. June expenditures: Paint for benches on Main Street, Donation to VFW, Payment for dance workshop leader
 - b. July expenditures: Art camp scholarships, Insurance for LG Children's Community Theater
2. Charitable Efforts: We discussed funding the following:
 - a. School supplies for one teacher liaison from each LG school
 - b. $500 scholarship to a graduating senior
 - c. LGAA stickers for businesses
 - d. Assistance in applying for scholarships, paying fees for such
 - e. Sponsoring area kids in art camps of any kind
3. Wonder City Arts Festival: LaTasha discussed starting an outdoor art festival, like a small scale Mayfest, with lots of artists selling their works, music, and a few food vendors—possibly at Pipe Springs Park or the sale barn location. She will do research and report at next meeting.
4. Newsletter: Roxann reported that she was doing a story about the Moores from the chiropractor clinic and possibly a story about our police chief Bryan Hurry. They sold 17 ads for the August edition.
5. ROMP: Shaun reported that fall ROMP events will take place at the Wonder City Coffee Shop, though the museum will remain open fulltime for anyone who wants to visit.
6. Miscellaneous: We already have LGAA pens to give all LG teachers at the Back-to-School morning meeting or lunch. Jennifer is going to find out if we can briefly address the teachers at the morning meeting. Shaun will see if the Methodist Church is sponsoring a teacher lunch again, so we can set up there and give away prizes and information.

NEXT MEETING: Aug. 10, Wednesday, 5:30-6:30 p.m., VFW Hall
