The balance forward was $4,708.45 and the ending balance was $4,784.04.

Newsletter Report: Marea has been hired full time at the library so the delivery of the newsletter will be dependent on her new work schedule. It looks good.

Elections: Motion was made to continue on with the officers the same by Kelly. All agreed. Motion passed.

Murder Mystery Fundraiser: Date, time, and location set for the fundraiser for Feb 15, 2019 at 6:00 PM at Wonder City Coffee. The cost to take part in the Murder Mystery was set at $50 per person with a spectator's cost of $20 per person that includes the meal that will be enjoyed by the participants. There was a motion made to reimburse ROMP for the cost of the game.

Future Art Exhibits: December exhibit will be by my Ray Grass. January through March 2019 exhibit will be by Winnie Childers who has quite the collection of paintings of local interest. May to be set up with articles of personal belongings with a little something written about it for the history of the area or community. Would be in place for Founder's Day.

LGAA Christmas Float: A possible float was discussed. It was decided that Roxann would speak with Shaney to see if there would be any student's interested in carrying a banner for the LGAA and possibly carrying some of their art work with them. We will attempt to plan ahead of time for next year's parade to have an actual float present in the parade.

ROMP News: A new exhibit opened in the museum. Everyone should go see it. The Rummage Store will be opening again soon.

Open Discussions: Bill Glass has expressed interest in wanting to an outside art piece for the town.

The VFW was found to be structurally sound and it is good to remodel.

Jerry Fleming's mom would like to do a writing workshop under the umbrella of LGAA.

Marea expressed interest in having it at the Public Library.

Meeting adjourned.
